PROJECTS

Dynamic Portfolio 03/2024 – 09/2024

Developed a responsive portfolio website using ASP.NET MVC with SQL Server as the backend. The site supports multi-user functionality with JWT-based login and a 30-second token countdown for enhanced session control.

- Users can create and manage various documents such as projects, skills, contact info, and personal profiles. All entries are editable, deletable, and include profile picture support.
- Logged-in users can also view content created by others, including their projects and profiles. The site features smooth animations and a mobile-friendly design for accessibility across devices. API documentation was provided using Redocly for backend microservices.

Adventure Games Website 11/2023 – 01/2024

Developed a real-time, web-based game listing platform using Python, Django (SQLite), HTML, CSS, and JavaScript.

- The project features smooth animations and an engaging user interface. A total of 21 games are listed within the platform, each displayed dynamically. Designed to be responsive and visually appealing, the site delivers a seamless user experience across devices.
